With this show there are a lot of opportunities to have a featured moment for those who are in the ensemble. Also, we will be informing the kids later as to which clique they may be involved with or which numbers they will be in.

If your name listed above in red, it means you are a Sunday/Tuesday person. If in black, you are a Sunday/Thursday person.

Remember that Sunday, January 29th is the parent meeting and read through. We will start at 2 p.m. so please be on time. Kids please bring a pencil! There will be more information at the meeting.

Congrats,
The High School Musical Creative Staff
